JENNA MOORHEAD
BSC, PGDE, OCT

Jenna Moorhead is the Program Assistant with the NPCA and the lead teacher at Ball's Falls Nature School. She is an OCT certified teacher with teachable subjects in geography, environmental science and outdoor education and holds her Certificate of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education. Jenna has over five years of teaching experience with students from elementary, secondary, and post-secondary in both a classroom and outdoor setting. Her favourite outdoor activities include snowshoeing, rock hounding, and discovering salamanders. Jenna's aspiration is for every child in the Niagara to have the opportunity to learn in nature and develop a love of the incredible environment we have in our region.
